DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' amendment dated 08/09/2004 has been received and entered. By the amendment, claims 33-53 are remain pending in the application.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 33 and 45 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection as follow:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 33-40, 43, 45-49, 50-51 and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kasama et al., US Patent No. 5,577,826, in view of Budd et al., US Patent No. 6,803,972.

Regarding the above claims, Kasama et al. disclose a reflect type color projector (figure 8) comprising:

- . a light source (101);
- . a transfective polarizing beams splitter (PBS) (PBS 103);
- . a color filter (color splitter 109);
- . dichroic trim filters (104, 108);

Art Unit: 2871

reflective liquid crystal light valves (105, 110 and 113) to selectively reflect portions respective first, second and third wavelength bands of light (through pixels, according to a liquid crystal light valves) toward a projection lens (116) as claimed.

Although Kasama et al. do not disclose a plate-type transfective PBS, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention was made to use the plate-type transfective PBS in stead of the Kasama et al. cube PBS, since it is a common practice in the art as evidence from Budd et al. (see col. 1, lines 32-34). In addition, the equivalent of the plate-type PBS and the cube PBS for their use in the projector art and the selection of any of these known equivalents for light beam splitter purposes would be within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 33-53 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 2-7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,661,475. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both application and patent disclose a same an optical projector display system.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
